Bergen Beach, New York Wins Their Fourteenth CABA World Series Championship

By Marc Magill
Staff Writer for The Sun News

The ending of the Continental Amateur Baseball Association High School Age Division World Series held in Euclid, Ohio may have been usual, but the story certainly wasn't.

The Brooklyn NY Bergen Beach Youth Organization won the CABA High School World Series held in Euclid, Ohio for the 14th time, beating Chicago, Illinois Hamlin Park Top Tier Baseball 11 - 1 on Friday afternoon.

"We're definitely coming back for a 15th," Manager Steve Bort said.

Joseph Lofus had two hits and four RBIs, leadoff hitter Isac Bullou scored three runs and knocked in two others, and Anthony Gomez scored three runs.

Brooklyn went 5 - 1 in the pool play and 5 - 1 in the Championship Division.

"We won because we had pitching," said first baseman Stetson Allie, 16 of North Olmsted, Ohio and St. Edward High School. This was his first year playing for Bergen Beach.

"We (Manager Bort) called me up and said, 'Come play for me,'" Allie said. "It was fun. It gets you seen by college scouts."

After dispatching the Diamond Stars from Cincinnati, Ohio, a team with players from across Ohio, Hamlin Park faced Brooklyn and won 8 - 7.

Since Brooklyn was undefeated in the Championship Division before the final day, Hamlin Park had to beat them twice to win the Championship.

But, Hamlin Park had played seven games in three days to force the final meeting. "We ran out of gas," Hamlin Park manager Tony Dawkins said. "They gutted it out."

"It was exciting to watch. They played well and I'm proud of them. They're a great bunch of kids."

Hamlin Park played three games in the final day without most of their pitchers. "Most of my starters went home," Dawkins said. "They had other commitments."

The lack of arms forced Dawkins to use position players as pitchers. "Some of them normally don't pitch," he said. "We found some things out we never new before."

One such case was Joe Frahm, who threw four innings to earn the win over Brooklyn. He gave up only one of Brooklyn's seven runs on four hits.

Frahm started the second game but didn't have much left in the tank.

"He pitched until he nearly died," said Tom McNamara, who has helped run the Series for all 21 years in Euclid.

Brooklyn had a fresh pitcher in Alex Valadaja. He allowed just three hits and one unearned run in five innings.

"You got to be prepared," Bort said. "You have to come with enough pitching."

"I've never seen a team (like Hamlin Park) with more grit and guts," McNamara said. "They were competitive and exciting -- a fun team to watch. It was a better Series than it would have been without them."
